

SMITHVILLE BOARD OF ALDERMEN
RETREAT/FINANCIAL SUMMIT WORK SESSION
May 25, 2022

A Retreat Work Session of the Smithville Board of Aldermen was held on May 25, 2022 at Northwest Missouri State University-Kansas City building located at 6889 North Oak Trafficway, Gladstone.

Present: Mayor Damien Boley; Board members: John Chevalier Jr., Kelly Kobylski, Dan Hartman, Ronald Russell, Marvin Atkins and Dan Ulledahl.

Staff: Cynthia Wagner, Anna Mitchell, Jack Hendrix, Jason Lockridge, Stephen Larson, Chuck Soules, Matt Denton, Linda Drummond, Tony Roetman, Mayra Ore, Gina Pate and Brittanie Propes.

Call to Order

Mayor Boley called to order the Retreat Work Session at 8:31 a.m.

FY2023 Initial Budget Development and Board Priorities

The Board and staff discussed what the community and Board priorities based on the community planning processes.

Staff outlined ongoing budget needs including personnel and facility needs.

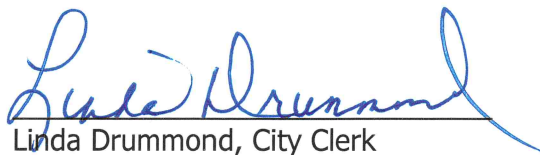

Staff then outlined revenue enhancement potential.

Based on discussion the Board identified funding priorities and revenue solutions to address these needs, with associated ballot initiatives and timing.

Adjourn

Alderman Ulledahl moved to adjourn. Alderman Hartman second the motion.

Ayes – 6, Noes – 0, motion carried. The Mayor declared the retreat/financial summit work session adjourned at 2:45 p.m.

Linda Drummond, City Clerk

Damien Boley, Mayor